FALL LANDSCAPING

PLANTING FALL FLOWERS

Introducing autumnal flowers to your landscaping can infuse vibrant colors into your outdoor space. Opt for chrysanthemums, pansies, and asters – these hardy plants thrive in cooler temperatures and offer a variety of rich hues. Consider arranging them in decorative pots by your front entrance or planting them along walkways.

MAINTAINING YOUR LAWN

Keep your lawn looking lush and well-maintained by raking up fallen leaves regularly. Consider mowing the grass a bit shorter than in the summer to prevent it from becoming too matted. A well-kept lawn enhances the overall appearance of your home.

DECORATING WITH PUMPKINS & GOURDS

Embrace the spirit of fall by placing pumpkins and gourds strategically around your yard. Whether on your front steps or as a centerpiece in a flower bed, these seasonal decorations add a touch of charm. For a unique twist, paint or carve intricate designs on your pumpkins to create a personalized look.

curb appeal

Here are ways you can enhance the exterior of your home to make a lasting impression. From maintaining your home's exterior through painting and upkeep to crafting a welcoming front porch with cozy seating and seasonal decor, this section provides insights on how to create an inviting atmosphere that reflects the warmth and beauty of the autumn season.

PAINTING & MAINTENANCE

Inspect your home's exterior for any signs of wear and tear. Touch up paint where needed and make sure that your siding, trim, and shutters are clean and in good condition. A well-maintained exterior sets the foundation for a stunning curb appeal.

WELCOMING FRONT PORCH

Your front porch is a focal point of your home's curb appeal. Consider placing a cozy bench or some stylish chairs adorned with comfortable cushions and blankets. Hang a fall-themed wreath on your door and incorporate seasonal elements like cornstalks or hay bales to create an inviting atmosphere.

OUTDOOR LIGHTING

As the days become shorter, outdoor lighting becomes essential. Illuminate your walkways with path lights, and consider adding string lights to your porch or patio area. Proper lighting not only enhances the aesthetic appeal but also improves safety around your home.

interior updates

Transform the indoor spaces of your home to match the cozy ambiance of the season. Learn how to infuse warmth with textiles like blankets and pillows, explore creative ways to decorate with seasonal elements, and discover how to make your fireplace the heart of your living space. With these tips, you can create a comfortable and inviting interior that captures the spirit of fall and offers a sanctuary from the cooling temperatures outside.

WARM & COZY TEXTILES

Swap out lightweight summer textiles for warmer options. Layer your sofas and chairs with plush blankets and throw pillows in autumnal colors such as deep reds, oranges, and warm browns. Consider adding a cozy area rug to your living room for extra warmth underfoot.

SEASONAL DECOR

Bring the essence of fall indoors with tasteful decor. Display a bowl of seasonal fruits, such as apples and pears, on your kitchen counter. Incorporate natural elements like pinecones and branches into your decor arrangements. Candles with scents like cinnamon, apple, and vanilla can also evoke the cozy ambiance of the season.

FIREPLACE FOCUS

If you have a fireplace, autumn is the perfect time to make it the centerpiece of your living space. Arrange seating around it to create a cozy gathering area. Decorate the mantel with fall-themed items like decorative pumpkins, candles, and seasonal artwork.
